Section 35a

Senior court clerks and order-drafters in Baden-Württemberg

(1) Senior court clerks with a qualification for the higher intermediate administrative or judicial service who have exercised the office within the meaning of section 32 of the Land Act on Matters of Non-contentious Jurisdiction (Landesgesetz über die freiwillige Gerichtsbarkeit) on a non-temporary basis for at least three years up to 31 December 2017 may carry out the tasks of a senior judicial officer in matters related to land registers as civil servants in the service of the Land. The Land ensures the technical qualification by providing suitable further training.

(2) Civil servants in the intermediate service who have been employed in the judicial service for at least five years, and who were primarily deployed as order-drafters in land registry offices prior to 1 January 2018, may carry out the tasks of a senior judicial officer in matters related to land registers as civil servants in the service of the Land. Prior to carrying out the tasks of a senior judicial officer, these civil servants must successfully attend courses at a University of Applied Science intended for them lasting at least eight months which impart the theoretical knowledge and methods, as well as the practical vocational abilities and knowledge which are needed to perform the tasks of a senior judicial officer in matters related to land registers.

(3) The details are regulated by Land law.

Section 36 (repealed)

Section 36 rescinded by Article 6 no. 2 of the Act of 15 July 2009 I, 1798 with effect from 1 January 2018.

Section 36a

Reserve for the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg

Section 24 (2) applies in the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg, with the proviso that the senior judicial officer is only to record the applications and declarations designated therein if this is necessary because of the connection with a task which he or she is to carry out, because of legal difficulties or for other reasons.

Section 36b

Assignment of senior judicial officers' tasks to the clerk of the registry

(1) The Land governments are authorised, by statutory instrument, to assign the following tasks to be carried out by the senior judicial officer in accordance with the present Act, completely or partly to the clerk of the registry:

1. the tasks in the recording of wills and contracts of inheritance for official custody in accordance with sections 346 and 347 of the Act on the Procedure in Family Matters and in Matters of Non-contentious Jurisdiction (section 3 no. 2 (c));
2. the reminder proceedings within the meaning of Book 7 of the Code of Civil Procedure, including the setting of the deadline for an objection in accordance with section 700 (1) in conjunction with section 339 (2) and (3) of the Code of Civil Procedure, as well as submission to the court designated as having jurisdiction for the contentious proceedings, also insofar as the reminder proceedings are processed automatically (section 20 (1) no. 1);
3. the granting of a further executable copy in cases falling under section 733 of the Code of Civil Procedure (section 20 (1) no. 12);
4. the granting of further executable copies of court certificates in accordance with section 797 (2) no. 1 of the Code of Civil Procedure (section 20 (1) no. 13);
5. the tasks incumbent on the criminal prosecution office as the execution authority in criminal and regulatory fine cases on execution of criminal and regulatory fines (section 31 (2)); this does not include the execution of imprisonment for failure to pay a fine.

The Land governments may assign the empowerment to the Land departments of justice.

(2) The clerk of the registry takes all measures which are required to carry out the tasks assigned to him or her. The provisions regarding the submission of specific tasks by the senior judicial officer to the judge or public prosecutor (sections 5, 28 and 31 (2a) and (2b)) apply accordingly.

(3) A ruling of the trial court to amend a decision of the clerk of the registry (section 573 of the Code of Civil Procedure) may not be applied for when carrying out tasks in accordance with subsection (1) sentence 1 no. 2, in cases falling under sections 694 and 696 (1), and section 700 (3), of the Code of Civil Procedure.

(4) When carrying out tasks in accordance with subsection (1) sentence 1 no. 5, objections against measures of the clerk of the registry are decided on by the senior judicial officer in whose place the clerk has acted. He or she may issue instructions to the clerk. The powers of the head of the authority from sections 145 and 146 of the Courts Constitution Act remain unaffected.

Section 37

Section III

- Provisos for the acceding territory (Article 3 of the Unification Treaty) -

Section IV

- Special arrangement for the Land Berlin -

Section III

Subject to the special arrangement for the Land Berlin contained in Section IV, federal law enters into force ... in the territory designated in Article 3 of the Treaty with the following provisos:

3. Act on Senior Judicial Officers of 5 November 1969 (Federal Law Gazette I, p. 2065), as last amended by Article 9 (2) of the Act of 26 June 1990 (Federal Law Gazette I, p. 1163), with the following provisos:

a) So long as and to the extent that senior judicial officers who have undergone training satisfying the requirements of section 2 are not available, or not available in sufficient numbers, the tasks of judicial administration assigned to senior judicial officers are carried out by judges and by notaries who have worked in the State Notary's Office, and tasks of the public prosecution office, insofar as they have been assigned to the senior judicial officer by the Act on Senior Judicial Officers, are carried out by public prosecutors.

Court secretaries may perform tasks of senior judicial officers in fields which are or can be assigned to them for performance in accordance with the previous law of the territory designated in Article 3 of the Treaty.

Court secretaries may be entrusted with further tasks of senior judicial officers in accordance with detailed provisions of Land law if they are suited, on the basis of further training measures, to perform these tasks.

b) The Land departments of justice may determine that persons may also be entrusted with tasks of a senior judicial officer who have a level of knowledge and performance in the field which is to be assigned to them, comparable to the level imparted by the training in accordance with section 2.

c) Section 11 (3) applies to challenging decisions which the judge has taken in place of the senior judicial officer; section 11 (5) remains unaffected.

28. The following general provisos apply in all other cases unless nos. 1 to 27 provide otherwise:

- a) Insofar as in provisions which are enacted in the territory designated in Article 3 of the Treaty, or have been enacted on the basis of the State Treaty of 18 May 1990, refer to statutory provisions of the Federal Republic of Germany which do not apply in this territory, the corresponding provisions of the German Democratic Republic apply. If there are no such provisions, or if their application would contradict the purpose of the referral, the provisions to which reference is made apply accordingly.
- b) Insofar as law of the German Democratic Republic which continues to apply refers to provisions which are no longer applicable, the corresponding provisions of the law of the Federal Republic of Germany apply.
- c) Insofar as other provisions refer to provisions which are amended by this Treaty, they are substituted by the amended provisions.
- d) Provisos a) to c) also apply if provisions link to specific sets of proceedings.
- e) If in the provisions which are enacted in the territory designated in Article 3 of the Treaty, and in the law applicable in this territory, comparable authorities, other agencies or proceedings, are given different designations, the agencies or proceedings designated in the law applicable there substitute those which are designated in the provisions which are enforced; the same applies to deviations in the designation of other circumstances which are comparable in terms of their content.
- f) Forms introduced by means of an ordinance may be used in an adapted form.
- g) The proceedings that are pending on the date of accession becoming effective continue in the state which they have reached in accordance with the provisions that have been enacted.
- h) The running of a deadline under procedural law which commenced prior to accession becoming effective is to be in accordance with the provisions applicable in the German Democratic Republic.
- i) If an appeal or remedy has already been submitted on the date of accession becoming effective, or if it has not yet been submitted but the deadline for its submission has not yet expired, the admissibility of the appeal or remedy and of the further proceedings thereto is to be in accordance with the provisions which have been enacted. If, however, an appeal or remedy has already been lodged in compliance with the formal provisions of the law of the German Democratic Republic, derogating provisions on form do not make them inadmissible; applications for appeals and reasoning which are necessary in accordance with the provisions that have been enacted are to be subsequently submitted within one month after accession becoming effective. If the admissibility of an appeal in accordance with the provisions which have been enacted depends on its being admitted by the court whose decision has been challenged, the appeal court also rules on the admission of the appeal.
- j) If, prior to accession becoming effective, an appeal or remedy has been admissibly lodged in accordance with the law of the German Democratic Republic, but is no longer admissible in accordance with the provisions that have been enacted, and is hence to be rejected, the costs and necessary expenses in the appeal or remedy proceedings are charged to the state treasury. The same applies to actions if the empowerment to lodge an action ceases to apply.

- k) If competence for a case is transferred to another agency by virtue of the enactment of federal law in the territory designated in Article 3 of the Treaty, the agency previously competent promptly forwards the files and records related to this matter available to it to the agency now competent. The same applies to files and records which have been only temporarily handed to other agencies by the previously competent agency.
- l) Appeal proceedings that are pending on the date of accession becoming effective are completed in accordance with the procedural law of the German Democratic Republic.

4. The provisos listed in Section III furthermore apply in the Land Berlin. They do not apply insofar as they are connected with the maintenance of the special court structure in the territory of Article 1 (1) of the Treaty.
